this film could save your life or someone you love

DOCUMENTARY SCREENING EVENT

May 2, 2019, 6 to 8 p.m.

The Little Theatre

240 East Avenue, Rochester, NY 14604

This engaging presentation and discussion will raise awareness about the seriousness of human papillomavirus (HPV) for women and men, and its prevention through vaccination. The first portion of the evening will feature a viewing of the award-winning documentary “Someone You Love: The HPV Epidemic,” which shares stories of five young women impacted by HPV. A panel discussion of experts will follow the film.

OUR PANELISTS INCLUDE:

- Cynthia Rand, M.D., M.P.H., Pediatrician, Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Co-Chair of NYS HPV Vaccine Coalition
- William Bonnez, M.D., Professor of Infectious Diseases, HPV researcher featured in the film
- Sajeena Thomas, M.D., Gynecologic Oncologist, Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology
- Rhonda Justice, Cervical Cancer Survivor

CCHP Director and vaccination expert Nancy M. Bennett, MD, MS, will moderate the discussion. Light refreshments will be served.
